

I dont want the legislation to change, but to stay as is. It is been wonderful not having our supper and evening interrupted by these telemarketer calls. Please, please, please dont change the law.